

TM

Your Local FBO Catalog

Inside: NAV Reviews

Top 40 Aviation Magazines

Special Offer: reduced subscription rates & free sample issues!

For your free electronic subscription of NAV call:
Seamans Airport 570-945-5125

Aviation Magazines

Greek type

This is greek type to determine the number of characters that can fit onto a block of copy. It is not intended to be read by the general public as text or even copy. This is greek type to determine the number of characters that can

AOPA Pilot

Active GA pilots & aircraft owners

Mostly pilot experience stories like Flying Over Mt. Rushmore with a fair amount of pilot instruction articles, and lots of AOPA member and industry news.

PROs: Great photography, good product reviews

Cover $5.00, members free Frequency Monthly

Circulation 373,000 AOPA members

EAA Sport Aviation

Recreational aviation journal

Heavy on news. Generous on info about how to build and maintain your plane, plus plenty of independent projects are featured. Big classified section.

PROs: Well-explained technical information

Cover Free to members Frequency Monthly

Circulation 150,000 EAA members

Flying

Most widely read aviation magazine

A good source for pilot instruction and experience, as in Perfect Landings and I Learned About Flying from That. Plenty of comprehensive aircraft reviews.

PROs: All aspects of flying, from A to Z

Cover $4.50 Frequency Monthly

Circulation 1.3 million readers

Plane & Pilot

Active piston-engine pilots

Everything from buying to flying for the small plane pilot, like Buying Your First Plane and Crosswind Landings FAQs. Generous aircraft reviews

PROs: Consider this a private pilot's users manual

Cover $ 4.99 Frequency Monthly

Circulation 98,000 readers

Private Pilot

Single & multi owners & pilots

Focus is on the pilot experience with lots of flying techniques - Landing in Utopia, Hot Tips for Cold Weather Flying. Also, in-depth aircraft reviews.

PROs: Text to come

Cover $0.00 Frequency Monthly

Circulation 200,000 readers